

NADSFL/Middlebury Supervisor of the Year Award

Nomination Deadline August 31, 2017

Requirements for award:

- Member of NADSFL for three years and current member in good standing
- Coordinator /Supervisor of a local language program
- Current Executive Board members cannot be nominated

Nominating Individual:

E-mail:

*The nominating individual must be a current NADSFL Member in good standing.

Candidate Information:

Name:

Institution:

Present Position:

Current address:

City:

State:

Zip:

Telephone (including area code): Office:

Home:

E-mail:

Member of NADSFL since:

Nominations must include the following:

1. A letter by the nominating individual that introduces the candidate and address the following points:

A. Service to the profession at the local level including, but not limited to:

- Quality and impact of curricular and instructional initiatives
- Assessment initiative and their impact to the district
- Staff development and their impact to the district
- Articulation strategies
- Initiatives to promote foreign language education
- Recognition within the district and community

B. Service to the profession including, but not limited to:

- Evidence of leadership including collaborative and cooperative efforts
- Evidence of involvement at the state, regional, and national levels
- Professional Presentations
- Committee involvement
- Involvement with NADSFL

C. Evidence of continuous professional growth

- Evidence of keeping current in education trends and research, both in world language education as well as general education research.
- Recent courses and seminars completed and/or organized and conferences attended

NADSFL/Middlebury Supervisor of the Year Award

2. Three additional letters of recommendation which provide additional insight about the candidate, including:
 - One from a current NADSFL Member
 - One from a language teacher under the nominee's supervision
 - One from a colleague/administrator in the nominee's school/district (e.g. principal, superintendent, curriculum colleague, etc.)
3. A copy of the nominee's C.V., not to exceed ten (10) pages

Once completed, please send nomination packets to NADSFL Nominations Chair at:

Brandon Locke, Director, World Languages
Anchorage School District
5530 E. Northern Lights Blvd.
Anchorage, AK 99504-3135

Please send an email to Brandon to confirm that he has received the packet.
Locke_Brandon@asdk12.org

Electronic submissions are accepted at the above email address as well.