

NADSFL Supervisor of the Year Award

Selection Criteria

Requirements for award:

- Member of NADSFL for three years and current regular member in good standing
- Coordinator /Supervisor of a local language program
- Current President and Vice President of NADSFL cannot be nominated

Nominating Individual:

- The nominating individual must be a current NADSFL Member (Regular, Associate, or Retired) in good standing. Patron members are not eligible to nominate a SOY.

Nominations must include the following:

1. A letter by the nominating individual that introduces the candidate and address the following points:
 - A. Service to the profession at the local level including, but not limited to:
 - Quality and impact of curricular and instructional initiatives
 - Assessment initiative and their impact to the district
 - Staff development and their impact to the district
 - Articulation strategies
 - Initiatives to promote world language education
 - Recognition within the district and community
 - B. Service to the profession including, but not limited to:
 - Evidence of leadership including collaborative and cooperative efforts
 - Evidence of involvement at the state, regional, and national levels
 - Professional Presentations
 - Committee involvement
 - Involvement with NADSFL
 - C. Evidence of continuous professional growth
 - Evidence of keeping current in education trends and research, both in world language education as well as general education research.
 - Recent courses and seminars completed and/or organized and conferences attended
2. Three additional letters of recommendation which provide additional insight about the candidate, including:
 - One from a current NADSFL Member
 - One from a language teacher under the nominee's supervision
 - One from a colleague/administrator in the nominee's school/district (e.g. principal, superintendent, curriculum colleague, etc.)
3. A copy of the nominee's C.V. or resume, not to exceed ten (10) pages

NADSFL Supervisor of the Year Award

Scoring Rubric

Part A: Service to the profession at the local level (6 point each)

Quality and impact of innovative curricular and instructional projects

Assessment initiatives

Staff development for new and experienced teachers

Articulation strategies

Initiatives to promote world language education and business

Community involvement

Honors and awards

Section Total

Part B: Service to the profession at the state, regional, and national levels (6 points each)

Evidence of leadership

Presentations at professional events and activities

Committee involvement

Honors and awards

Section Total

Part C: Evidence of continuous professional growth (8 points each)

Evidence of ability to respond to current trends in education, both to world languages specifically and to education in general

Recent courses, seminars, etc. completed

Section Total

Part D: Three letters of recommendation to support documentation of criteria (6 points each)

Letter 1

Letter 2

Letter 3

Section Total

Grand Total / 100